

ROMANCE: HIGHLANDER: Marrying Her Highland Enemy (Scottish Historical Arranged Marriage Protector Romance) (Medieval Scottish Highlander)

Rhona MacDonald and her mother Una barely escaped the massacre that claimed the lives of Rhona's father and dozens of her clan. Now Rhona faces a new trial: her mother has agreed to marry her off to Adair Campbell, son of the new Chief--and her sworn enemy. Rhona MacDonald lost everything when she was eight years old. Her father, a laird living at Glencoe who had offered hospitality to members of Clan Campbell. But in the night, Campbell rose up and betrayed their hosts, slaughtering the men in their beds, burning the homes and sending the women and children to freeze and starve. Rhona and her mother Una were two of the only survivors, and Rhona has hated the Campbells ever since. But when the company of Campbell men comes to retrieve her and her mother, Rhona is in for a surprise when she meets their mysterious leader, a man who calls himself Declan but when he comes for her, she is in for a tremendous surprise, as his secret, and that of his branch of the Campbell clan, is finally revealed.
