

The Cure For Love

The Cure For Love is a light-hearted romance set in Cornwall and London during the summer. It is a 32,000 word novella. Story: The story starts in London. Daisy is broken-hearted when her boyfriend, Sebastian, announces his engagement to Celeste. Sebastian works for a publishing company in London. Celeste's father, Franklin, owns the company. Daisy is a freelance botanical illustrator who often works for Franklin, illustrating books. Angry and betrayed, Daisy leaves London and heads for a break in Cornwall. The seclusion she seeks is soon disturbed when she meets Jake Wolfe who owns a health food shop in the town. Then there are the various gossips such as Mrs Lemon, Sharky the baker and Jake's uncle Woolley to deal with. Daisy's life by the seaside is set to be hectic, but amid the mayhem will she find romance, especially when Sebastian arrives in Cornwall?
