

Filthy Stinking Happy

Were living in an interesting time. The freedom that weve enjoyed since the 60s has allowed us to experience all the things that we thought would make us happy. Despite this, there seems to be more unhappiness now than ever before. Interestingly, New Age philosophies, whose growth started around the same time, now seem to be more widely accepted. Most people today are familiar with Karma and many are aware of the need to look inside yourself to find real peace, but how many know how to adopt these principles into their own everyday lives to create happiness? Throughout my life Ive attracted good things to me without really understanding what it was that I was doing. Once I realised that simply being happy attracts more of the things that you want into your life, I started researching on how anyone can apply the same methods to change their life too. The good news is that it doesnt matter what your background is or where you are now, by following some simple steps you can dramatically change your life forever. Regardless of whether youre filthy, stinking or rich, you really can be happy, the choice is up to you!
